ERP

La réglementation :

Organisme complexe : AMC1 ORA.GEN.200(a)(3) Management system
COMPLEX ORGANISATIONS - SAFETY RISK MANAGEMENT

g) The emergency response plan (ERP)

(1) An ERP should be established that provides the actions to be taken by the organisation or specified individuals in an emergency. The ERP should reflect the size, nature and complexity of the activities performed by the organisation.

(2) The ERP should ensure:

- (i) an orderly and safe transition from normal to emergency operations;
- (ii) safe continuation of operations or return to normal operations as soon as practicable; and
- (iii) coordination with the emergency response plans of other organisations, where appropriate.

ERP

La réglementation :

Organisme non-complexe : AMC1 ORA.GEN.200(a)(1);(2);(3);(5) Management system
NON-COMPLEX ORGANISATIONS - GENERAL

(f) The organisation should, in cooperation with other stakeholders, develop, coordinate and maintain an emergency response plan (ERP) that ensures orderly and safe transition from normal to emergency operations and return to normal operations. The ERP should provide the actions to be taken by the organisation or specified individuals in an emergency and reflect the size, nature and complexity of the activities performed by the organisation.
